

Garcia receives Inspiration Award of the Year for 2013

David Garcia, who works for InspirationField, was awarded the Inspiration Award at the Annual Meeting and Dinner held Dec. 2, 2013. This award is presented annually to an InspirationField employee who upholds the mission of InspirationField and goes above and beyond to fulfill their everyday duties.

Each year InspirationField presents the Inspiration Award to an employee who truly is the definition of excellence. An employee who is not only a leader, but a role model; someone who inspires others and asks more of him/herself than others do!

Chief Executive Officer, Johnnie DeLeon commented, "We are very proud of David and his work. David, along with other staff and individuals, keeps our new building near spotless. David is very deserving of this award."

Throughout the year, employees are nominated by their fellow co-workers for the Employee of the Quarter award. Each recipient receives a $100 bonus and becomes eligible for the annual Inspiration Award which includes a

"He is a very hard-working, dedicated person. He is also a team player and is willing to assist anybody with anything. He takes a lot of pride in the work he and the crew members do." – Joseph Archuleta $500 bonus.

The employees who were nominated for the Inspiration Award included: Employee of the 1st Quarter – Charlie Lovato, 2nd Quarter – David Garcia, 3rd Quarter – Kayla Bitter, 4th Quarter – Kimberly Woodard.

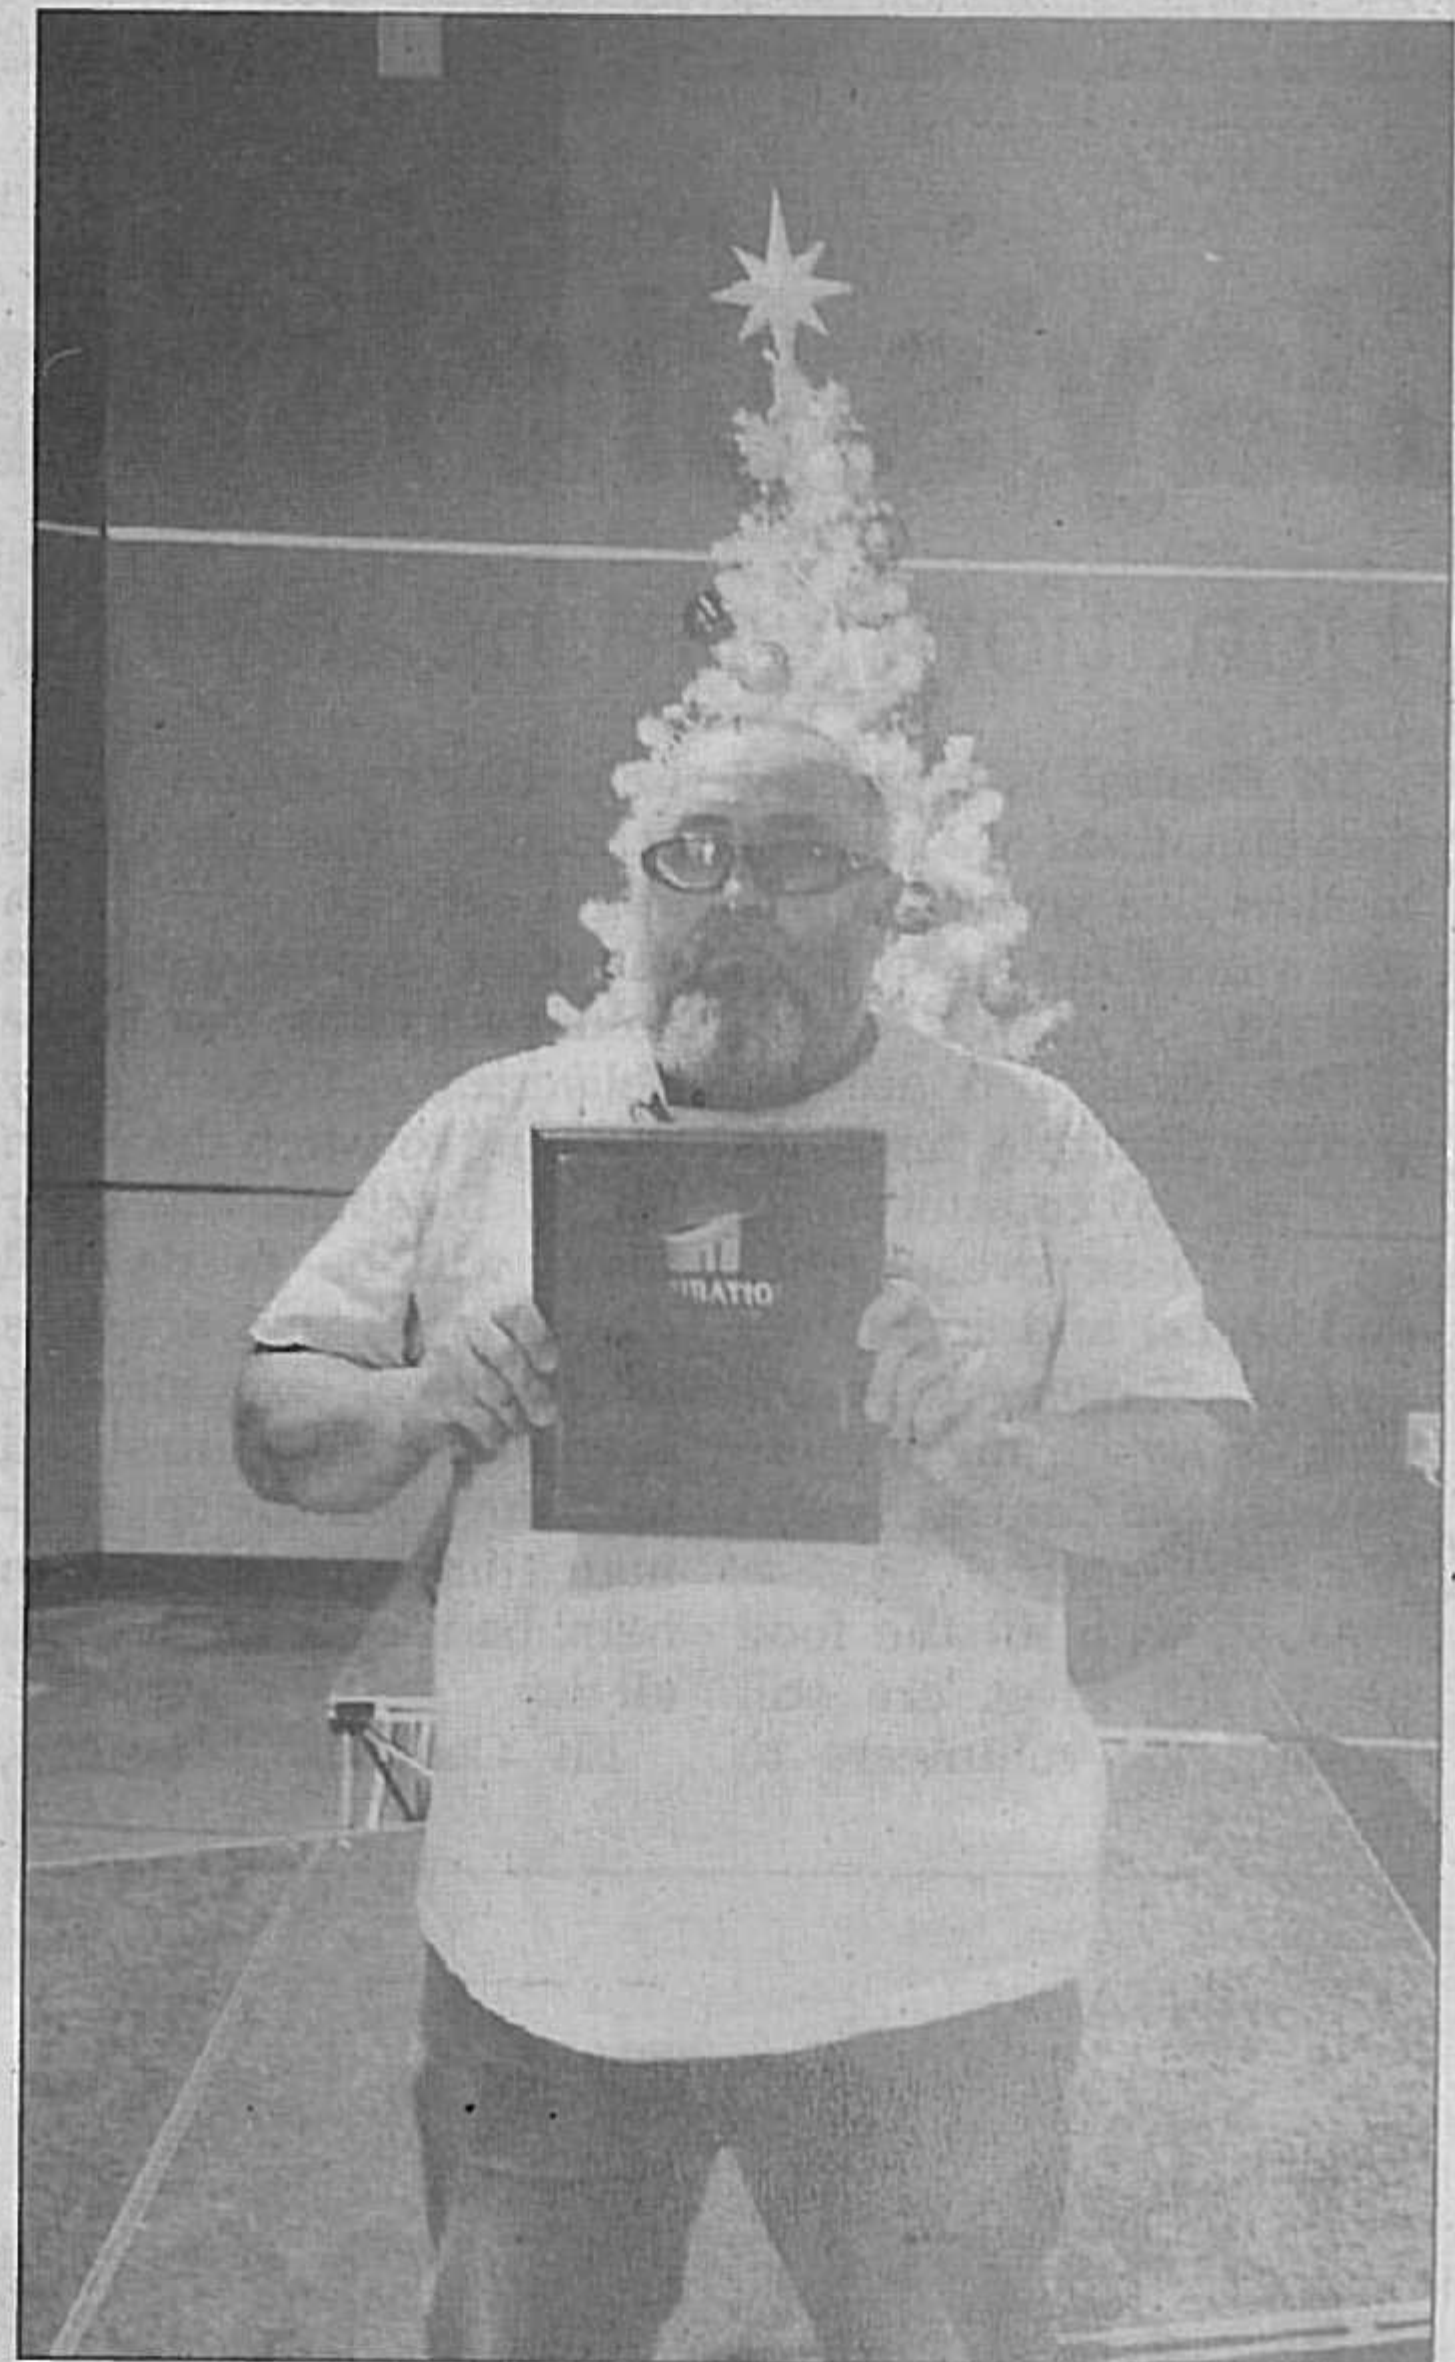

"He is a very hard-working, dedicated person. He is also a team player and is willing to assist anybody with anything. He takes a lot of pride in the work he and the crew members do." – Joseph Archuleta

David has been employed by InspirationField for a year now, where he works as a Cleaning Crew Leader. There are five members in services on the Cleaning Crew where they do basic janitorial services such as: sweeping, mopping, cleaning windows, etc. They also clean around the community for Amtrak/BNSF Train Depot, Pepsi Distribution Center, Loaf N' Jug parking lots, Wallace Oil parking lot and they also pick up excess thrift from Global Treasurz in Rocky Ford and CrossRoads in La Junta.

"David is outstanding all the time. Every time I pass him working with the individuals, he is always telling them something positive. He is always joking and laughing with me and is always working hard, teaching the individuals how to clean the right way or how to vacuum. He is outstanding and I know InspirationField is very lucky to have such a great employee working here. We are truly lucky to have him." – Josefin Malden

With each of the individuals on David's crew, David has created special relationships through his hard work, leadership and dedication. David's passion and motivation are well worth the recognition and a true inspiration to all direct care staff!

David Garcia receives the Inspiration Award for 2013 from InspirationField. COURTESY PHOTO