

LA JUNTA BOOSTER CLUB

‘Pack the Gym Night’ donates to InspirationField

La Junta Booster Club’s ‘Pack the Gym Night’ recently donated $238 to InspirationField. La Junta High School took several donations of canned foods, winter jackets, hats, gloves or cash to be given to local charities in the community in January 2014.

Athletic Director Dan Nuschy chose InspirationField as one of the local charities to give back to.

“We are trying to get more people to attend games so we came up with the idea of having drawings at games for Nuggets tickets, Avalanche tickets, and La Junta Tiger apparel,” Nuschy said. “The idea was to have people bring a non-perishable item, clothing, or donate one dollar to get into the drawing. We gave monetary donations to both InspirationField and Associated charities. We also donated all clothing and food items to Associated Charities. This was a win-win situation for us; we helped out local charities and had our best crowds of the season for basketball and wrestling. Our kids and coaches really appreciate the support they received during these two events. We wish we could get that type of support for every home contest. We plan on doing more events like this in the future. I would like to thank the La Junta Booster Club, Sports World and Studio 5 Portraits for their donations to our cause.”

Caitlin Coffield, Community Relations Manager at InspirationField and Dan Nuschy, athletic director at La Junta High School. COURTESY PHOTO

InspirationField’s Executive Director, Johnnie Deleon, commented, “We are very grateful to Dan Nuschy and the La Junta Booster Club for selecting our agency. InspirationField is a big supporter of La Junta athletics.

Within its new building, InspirationField provides individuals in service with day habilitation, job support, educational activities, case management services, and the necessary administrative supports. InspirationField will use the donation to help improve the quality of services that are provided to the individuals through better equipment and supplies for the new rooms that are within the facility.

If you are interested in contributing to InspirationField, please send your contributions in the form of check or money order to InspirationField, Attn: Caitlin Coffield, 612 Adams Ave., La Junta, CO 81050.

For additional information regarding InspirationField, and services provided, please contact Caitlin Coffield, Community Relations Manager at 719-384-8741, ext. 102.